GAP OPENER

---

Attention:

Carefully read all instructions and review the images before installing this product. Do not attach anything to the mount face plate until after installing the mount to the dashboard. Doing so makes it more difficult to install the mount to the dash. Also, our installation instructions are often printed prior to the last year of a ProClip mount listing. The year listing we show on our web site should be the most accurate listing.

Important

Self-installation instructions and advice are provided for your convenience. It is your responsibility to determine if you have the knowledge, skills, and physical ability required to properly perform an installation. ProClip USA, LLC. shall have no liability for damage or injury resulting from the installation or use of any ProClip or third party products. It is your responsibility to ensure that all products are installed in adherence with local laws and regulations and in such a manner as to allow a vehicle to be operated safely and without distraction. ProClip USA, LLC. product warranties do not cover the installation, removal or reinstallation of any product.

STEP 1 OF 4

Using the included gap opener to get the panel started, gently pull back and take off the dash panel surrounding the upper center dash vent.

STEP 2 OF 4

Once the panel has been removed, unscrew and remove the upper left dash panel screw. See photo.

STEP 3 OF 4

Using the included long screw, attach part one of the ProClip mount onto the dash. Place the long screw through the hole in the mount and thread the screw into the dash where the dash screw was removed. Fasten part one of the mount securely onto the dash.

STEP 4 OF 4

Place the dash panel back onto the dash making sure all of the clips are pressed into place. With the shorter machine screw, washers and nut, attach part two of the mount onto part one. position the mount face plate in the direction you would like the face plate to point and securely tighten the machine screw.
